Admission of Dividend Shares Delayed

Further to the announcement by CIC on 6 September 2013 that the application for the admission of 1,242,419 new Common Shares to trading on AIM had been made and Admission to trading was expected to occur on Thursday 19 September 2013, the board is still awaiting confirmation of required details from certain shareholders to allot the new Common Shares and has therefore delayed the admission of all of the new Common Shares until 3 October 2013. If all details are not received by this date, there may need to be a further postponement.
